The Islamia University of Bahawalpur
Department of Political Science
BSPA – VI
Course: Decentralization & Governance - PA-21604 (3 Credit hours)

Instructor: Kinza Yousaf   Email: kinza.virk@gmail.com

I. INTRODUCTION
- Definitions and Key Clarifications

II. SUCCESSFUL PROGRAMMING
- Effective Decentralization and Democratic Local Governance
- Building Successful Programs

III. ASSESSING THE ENVIRONMENT
- Fundamental Concepts
- An Assessment Methodology
- Programming Implications
- Other Considerations

IV. DEFINING PROGRAMMING STRATEGY
- Options for Strategic Focus
- Programming Considerations

V. SELECTING ENTRY POINTS AND TACTICS
- Identifying the Entry Point
- Selecting Program Tactics

VI. MONITORING AND EVALUATION
- Performance Monitoring
- Performance Evaluation
- Performance Indicators
- Setting Targets and Measuring Results

VII. MANAGING PUBLIC SECTOR DECENTRALIZATION IN DEVELOPING COUNTRIES
- Knowledge about the Performance of Decentralization
- Going deeper: beyond the obvious problem

VIII. DECENTRALIZATION AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT STRUCTURES: KEY TO STRENGTHENING DEMOCRACY IN PAKISTAN
- Local Governments Systems and Decentralization in Pakistan
- Constitutional Guarantees and the 18th Amendment

IX. FOREIGN AID AND DECENTRALIZATION
- Centralized systems and weak decentralization

X. RETHINKING DECENTRALIZATION

Referencing

Decentralization, U. N. D. P. A Sampling of Definitions. Working Paper Prepared in connection with the Government of Germany, http://www. undp. org/eo/documents/decentralization_working_report. pdf, download on 15 March, 2005.

Dickovick, J. Tyler. "Foreign aid and decentralization: Limitations on impact in autonomy and responsiveness." Public Administration and Development 34.3 (2014): 194-206.

Saud, Adam, and Kashif Ali Khan. "Decentralization and Local Government Structures: Key to Strengthening Democracy in Pakistan." (2016).

Smoke, P. (2015). Managing public sector decentralization in developing countries: Moving beyond conventional recipes. Public Administration and Development, 35(4), 250-262.

Smoke, Paul. "Rethinking decentralization: Assessing challenges to a popular public sector reform." Public Administration and Development 35.2 (2015): 97-112.

Usaid. "Decentralization and democratic local governance programming handbook." (2000).