

All the paper of midterm and final term will contain questions of three types i.e. MCQs, short questions and long questions.

MCQs will be based upon the basic knowledge related to the biography of the main writers included in the course e.g. their date of birth and death, city of birth and year of publication year.

Short questions will be based on basic facts mentioned in the novels e.g. character names their relations, places in the text and important events.

Long questions will be about the themes, concepts, narrative styles and important concepts of the main texts.
