

Test

Test is an instrument used to measure the person's ability in a given specific area. It is used to measure the behavior of a person for a specific purpose. Tests are systematic method of collecting information which helpful in inferences about the characteristics of people or objects.

Objectives of tests (For Teachers)

- Help in knowing student performance
- Helps in Diagnosing the student problem
- Helps in remedial measure
- Helps in selecting suitable teaching method
- Knowing the progress of learning
- Assigning grades
- Classification and selection of students

Objectives of tests (For Learners)

- Helps in knowing performance
- Identification of weak of areas
- Opportunity to improve performance