Punishment (positive and negative)

We have practiced it with examples many times in the class already.

Note: behavior of the whole class regarding the assignment was very disappointing. I have given you lectures in detail with daily life examples on reinforcements and punishment. I described everything in simple words in the notes. I am not getting it that why you guys cannot understand a simple work? Please use your brains and try to understand some simple words. Please show some responsibility. Your CR asked me countless times and I explained everything. I repeat I don't need definitions. I have given you a simple scenario. You just have to apply some simple approaches according to your understanding. Now I expect a little bit hard work and some responsibility. I hope everyone is safe out there.

Regards.
