

Topic: Creative writing

Q1. Creative writing is a subjective creation of a picture of the world. It is an expression of the realization of the joys and sorrows, as well as a way to let one's imagination run wild. The picture has a context and contains a story. Look at the following picture and write a short imaginary story of 100-150 words.

The Fostering Things

Alexa is a girl with only one parent. Her father Jason have brought her up alone as he lost his wife(Alexa's mother) while giving birth to the only child of him, Alexa. Jason didn't married again because he loved his wife so much that he thinks no other woman could fill the void she had left.

After his wife's death, Jason was broken, his world had gone dark but Alexa came up as a silver lining in the black clouds. She was the only reason which get Jason going with his life.

Jason had considered her the only reason to live. That's why he brought up Alexa with so much care and attention which as a result made Alexa too sensitive. Jason had to took her to his office very often. She was that sensitive that when she was four years old and Jason has admitted her into school, it took a month to get her regular to go to school.

Now three years has passed. Alexa is seven. She is in one class now and pretty grown up to understand things but with her growing up, sensitivity also grows up. As the girls are sensitive (A well known fact). Alexa has double sensitivity to many girls because of her fostering with too much attention and satisfaction of everything she wanted.

The school has inaugurated the mother's day function to support mom's of the students. Alexa was not willing to go to the function but Jason want her to go and enjoy the function and get use to these kind of situations as she may face these scenarios in many stages of her life. At last after much endeavour of Jason, she agreed.

It's 10th of May, a very hard day for Alexa and Jason as they have to go to the ceremony arranged in the honor of mother's. The part of the parent Alexa has always missed.

As the ceremony starts, there were an anthem to honor the mother's sitting there. Jason was looking happy on the outside but inside he was broke and was barely controlling her emotions. But Alexa couldn't control her emotions and hugged his daddy tight for not coming into tears. Jason backed her up and patted on her back to give her strength and control her emotions. Fortunately, the ceremony has a funny skits also which at least lessened his rue.

After the ceremony ends, there was a little activity which were to played by students as a extra curricular(As told to students). So parents have to wait outside.

After some time, Alexa came out of the school running with the tears of joy and hugged Jason. (As seen in the picture).

The reason behind this expression of tears of joy was because the extra curricular activity was just a name but inside it was a tribute to Alexa for coming up to the ceremony and holding it up.

What was in the tribute ; There was a video of Alexa's 3 years in school with addition to some of her mom's photos which was the real reason Alexa bursts into tears.

The End.
